VOL. III. RALEIGH, N. C., WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 23, 1867. NO. 66.

DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, Proprietor.

From the Stanton Spectator.

A FEW WORDS TO THE COLORED PEOPLE.

As election is at hand, and in the Providence of God, you are called on to take part in it. No one doubts your wish to do what is best for yourselves and the country. The question is, how can you best promote these objects? You will find plenty of designing people, who, for their own wicked purposes, will seek to mislead you. They want offices and power for themselves, and they wish to use you as the monkey used the cat's paw, to draw the hot chestnuts out of the fire. Such men will try to array you against your old masters, and get you to vote, in solid column, for these pretended friends. Will you advance your interests in this way? Who now gives you employment? Who furnishes your houses, and fuel and food and clothing? Is it the man who seeks to mislead you, or those against whom they seek to array you?

Suppose you listen to the counsels of these bad men, do you think the man of property will employ those who turn against them? If they do, they will act differently now from what they have done heretofore.—There are thousands of white people in the North, and tens of thousands of Irish and Germans, who want employment and the profits of the business you now have. Do you wish them to get it? Do you wish to give it up in their favor? If so, prove to the men of property that you are against them, and their interests, and the country will soon swarm with white servants and laborers, and you will see your error when it is too late.

Do you think the Northern people set you free out of any love they bore for you? By no means. They did it through necessity, not to help you, but to hurt the people of the South. Who brought your forefathers from Africa and made them slaves? It was the people of the North. They sent their ships to Africa, and either stole or traded for negroes, and brought them here and sold them to the people of the South?

All the Northern States once had slaves. What did they do with them? Did they set them free? By no means! They sold them South, and then cried out against the wickedness of slavery!

Are they your friends now? Do they want to give you the right to vote, and be on an equality with the whites in the Northern States? Let the late vote in Ohio, where the people decided against negro suffrage, by fifty thousand majority, answer the question.

Have you ever thought of the reason why Northern people were so anxious to get rid of slavery? Was it from affection to you? Quite the reverse. There are thousands of poor white people in the North, who want to come here. They want the places you now hold, and the profits of the employment you now have. In a word they want to root you out, to make room for themselves. As long as you had intelligent and powerful masters to protect you, they could not do this. They saw it, and like cunning fellows as they are, they made a flank movement on you, and sought to do indirectly what they could not do directly. The first step was to sever the connection between you and your old masters, and thereby withdraw their protection from you. To this end, they set you free, and are trying now to array you against those with whom you were born and raised. As soon as they get you fairly cut loose from the protection of your old masters, and in the position of a dog without an owner, they will kick and cuff you at pleasure, and there will be no one to defend you. You will fall between two stools. You will lose your old friends, and gain no new ones.

Let any colored man or woman go to any Northern State, and try to get employment in any factory, or as driver of a street car, or as hackman, &c., and see how soon he will be pelted with stones, or beaten with clubs!

This loudness of the Yankee for the negro is all pretense. Before five years you will see another negro excitement in the North. This time it will be not for, but against the negro. It will be to run him out of the country. This was Lincoln's idea as expressed by him to a colored delegation which called on him.

Northern interest stimulated abolition, to make you defenceless, and now that you are defenceless, the Northern people will drive you out to make room for themselves. They drove your fathers out of the Northern States, and they will drive you out of the Southern States into Mexico. Mark what we say and remember it!

A BITTER MEASURE OF RADICALISM CONDEMNED.

From the Chicago Tribune (Radical.)

A multitude of circumstances seem to have combined to discourage the cultivation of cotton. Notwithstanding the improved financial condition of the South compared with last year, the partial or complete recuperation of many desolated plantations, the rapid increase of railroad and steamboat transportation, and the larger quantity of land planted with the staple, the journals in the cotton States unite in the opinion that the production for 1867 will not exceed that of 1866, and will fall below the estimate of six weeks ago. A general despondency exists among the planters, as the reduction in price has been so steady and so long continued, that the avails of the crop will hardly more than suffice to pay off their indebtedness. Many of them will be as poor as when they started. Most of them commenced planting after the war with very limited means and under very disadvantageous circumstances. They not only owe their factors and commission merchants for considerable advances, which must be paid out of the amount realized from this year's crop, but they contracted for labor on a basis of price for cotton much above what will be actually realized. Under the expectation that quotations would not fall below a certain figure, many ventured on expenditures, for fertilizers, for improvement of fences, for erection of buildings, and for other kindred objects, which, although valuable additions to the wealth of the country, are nevertheless, in the present juncture, serious embarrassments to the owners. Had the people commenced operations last spring with the accumulations of former seasons in possession, even this severe blow might have been far less prostrating; but when we remember that the whole cotton country except Texas had been devastated by four years of war, the embarrassment and distress that must ensue can easily be imagined.

The anxiety of the Northern and Eastern merchants to extend their business has led many of them to sell goods to the South on four months credit, particularly to such as were prompt paying customers before the war. Stimulated by the apparent needs of the people, and trusting to the expected large increase in the production of cotton, Southern dealers made heavy purchases.—The embarrassments consequent upon a short crop and a decline in price have driven the planters into the practice of rigid economy, and, therefore, the goods remain unsold.

Just here, when everybody is disheartened, the Government steps in with a demand for the payment of its tax of two and a half cents per pound, accompanied by such revenue regulations to enforce its collection and to prevent frauds as seriously retard the sale of the product, the only resource from which the holder can raise the funds to pay the tax. In this way twenty millions of dollars will be subtracted from the value of the present crop to the producer—an incalculable loss to him under his present embarrassments, amounting to one-seventh of the entire sum which the crop will realize. This heavy tax (the only one imposed on any raw material) ought, we think, to be repealed. We are among those who favored its enactment, and also its retention when the question was before Congress last year; but we think that the facts have not justified the wisdom of its imposition, and that both political and commercial reasons unite in demanding its repeal.

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

ASSETS $7,000,000.

THIS COMPANY ISSUES TEN YEAR NON-FORFEITING ENDOWMENT POLICIES, contracting to pay the amount insured at death or the specified time.

An endowment policy presents the double attraction of providing for one's family or other dependents in case he should be cut off before a specified age, or of securing to himself independence, in case he attains the age. Thus insuring for ten years, a note for one half of the cost will be taken by paying six per cent interest.

This plan gives, in addition to all the advantages of life insurance, a safe and convenient INVESTMENT for one's savings, till they have accumulated to a definite amount; which he receives in one sum at the specified times.

IMPORTANT TO

CAROLINA SHIPPERS.

THE NEW

Baltimore and Carolina Grand Trunk

FREIGHT LINE,

VIA PETERSBURG, Va.,

Comprising the following great Freight Routes:

THE POWHATAN

Steamboat Company's Freight Line of Steamers,

PETERSBURG AND WELDON,

RALEIGH AND GASTON,

NORTH CAROLINA,

WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA,

WILMINGTON AND WELDON,

ATLANTIC AND NORTH CAROLINA,

WILMINGTON AND MANCHESTER,

CHARLOTTE AND SOUTH CAROLINA R. R.,

And their connections.

Time Quick and Rates Low.

THIS NEW TRUNK LINE FORMS A GREAT FREIGHT ROUTE between Baltimore and Weldon, Warrenton, Raleigh, Hillsboro', Lexington, Salisbury, Morganton, Charlotte, Lincolnton, Goldsboro', Newbern, Beaufort, Wilmington, Chesterville, Winnsboro', Columbia, Sumterville, Manchester, and all intermediate points on and near those great Railways and their connections.

The Powhatan Steamers connect at Petersburg with Petersburg Railway for all points in the Carolinas. Cars are run alongside of Steamers' Wharf and goods transferred with careful handling. Cars are run through without breaking bulk between Petersburg and Raleigh, Charlotte, Goldsboro', Wilmington, &c., &c. This Inland Line possesses many advantages over a Sea Route. Marine risk is small and insurance is comparatively nothing. The Wharf of the Powhatan Steamers being situated in the very centre of the great shipping district of Baltimore, renders it convenient to shippers, and drayage is very small.

Great attention paid to consignments of Cotton, Corn, Wheat, Rosin, &c. &c. All produce forwarded at the lowest possible rates.

☞ To insure transportation over this Inland Fast Line, mark all goods, whether Northward or Southward bound, "Via Petersburg."

☞ Freight landed in Baltimore day following delivery to the Steamers.

Through Receipts are given and fixed rate per 100 pounds guaranteed both ways

☞ Rates in every case same as via Bay Line and Portsmouth to and from Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York.

N. B.—With regard to last named points, freight is forwarded to and from Petersburg by Philadelphia and N. Y. Steamers.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 23, 1867.

GEN. CANBY'S ELECTION ORDER—WESTERN COUNTIES.

We gave a synopsis of this Order on yesterday. To-day we publish the official document. Its general provisions are in accordance with the Reconstruction Acts.—We like much the arrangements of Gen. Canby for the preservation of order and quiet. The Order, to our mind, is deficient, in that it does not require, at the large precincts, two boxes instead of one. In many of the large precincts, it will be impossible to poll the vote in two days, without two boxes. We hope that Gen. Canby's attention, or that of the Registration Boards, if they have the power, will be called to this matter.

We must, however, express our regret at the apportionment of the delegates. The most objectionable feature of the plan is that it ignores an essential attribute in the protection of American liberty, recognized both in our State and Federal Constitutions, i. e. the principle of protection to minorities, as provided for in the constitution of the U. S. Senate, and in the Constitution of this State, securing to each county, however small, one delegate.

Draw a line due North from Virginia to South Carolina, touching the West line of Wake County, and we have 48 counties West of that line and 41 counties East of it. The 48 counties West, by this apportionment, have only 53 delegates, while the 41 counties East have 67 delegates to the Convention; whereas, if the principle alluded to had been observed, the relative political strength of the West, in the event of a conflict of opinion between the East and it, would have enabled the West to secure at least a safe compromise on any question. As it is, the political power of the Western counties in the State Convention is gone, and they are left to the mercy of the East. This fact is made palpable to every eye.

If this be so, as it certainly is, we should not be surprised if the Western people vote en masse against the Convention. Our Western people may feel justified in opposing Convention, simply on this ground.—We are, however, of opinion that sound policy dictates that no organized opposition should be made to a State Convention. We are sincerely anxious for speedy reconstruction and the restoration of the entire Union to harmony and peace. We believe the life, the existence of the nation and of republican institutions depend upon it. Yet we do not believe that these can possibly be preserved on the Radical principles of reconstruction, and never have believed so. Yet we are willing to show the Congress that we are neither contumacious nor factious—that we do not oppose a thing, because a Radical Congress proposes it. If it were safe, or wise and good, and promised in the future any hope of peace and harmony to the nation and any promise of protection to Constitutional liberty, we should not simply lie still and acquiesce because forced on us by bayonets, as we have done, but we would advocate it. While, therefore, we do not advise opposition to the Convention, we do advise the rallying of the entire Conservative forces of the State to carry a majority of Conservative men into the State Convention. Discouraging as the present apportionment of the State is, this may be done, if every Conservative man in the State will go to work to accomplish it. Let all the friends of Constitutional liberty, whether disfranchised or not, arouse from their lethargy and supineness, and come to the rescue.

And the Constitution to be framed by the Convention, if called, must be such an one as the people of North Carolina, white and colored, can live under, in peace and prosperity, or we must vote it down!

NOT THIRTY DAYS.

In less than a month, the enfranchised people of North Carolina will be called upon to discharge the most solemn duty that can possibly devolve upon them. On its intelligent and conscientious performance rests the destiny of the State.

There is no time left for the discussion of principles. We presume that the vast majority of the people of North Carolina are already fully persuaded that the Reconstruction Acts of Congress are neither just, wise or constitutional. The practical question now presented for their determination is, whether they will choose to vote for a Convention in pursuance of those Acts, or decline to do so, leaving after-results, under the rulings of Providence, to take care of themselves. That is a matter for every voter's intelligent and honest convictions, and it is one, therefore, of such paramount solemnity, that we will not attempt to make it a shibboleth.

Our own impression, decidedly, is that a Convention will be called. It, therefore, urgently behooves every man in this State, who loves North Carolina, who is a friend of Constitutional Union and civil liberty, and who would rescue our State government from the hands of the architects of ruin, to labor with might and main, in season and out of season, to secure the election of a majority of good, reliable, conservative men to that body. That must be our first and greatest fight, and we will win it, if every man will do his duty,—if there be no timidity, nervousness, indifference.

Should, unfortunately, the advocates of proscription, negro-supremacy and ultra-Radicalism succeed in their design of Brownlowizing a Constitution for North Carolina, we must make a final, concerted, overwhelming effort to defeat it at the polls, where there can be no partial apportionments by districts or counties to defeat the legitimate aggregate expression of the popular will!

Buckle on your armor, friends! Go to work, like men and patriots!

HON. R. P. DICK.

This gentleman, who was present at the late September Radical Convention in this City, has addressed a manly and patriotic letter to the Editor of the Register, in which he repudiates, with emphasis, the action and spirit of that turbulent concern. The subjoined extracts are so well timed and sensible, that we take pleasure in re-publishing them.

As we understand Mr. Dick, he does not endorse the Reconstruction Acts as wise or proper in themselves, but he yields his objections on that score, believing that these Acts present the speediest avenue of return to the Union. Such being his views, we can but regard Mr. Dick as a Conservative man, though he styles himself a Republican.

"You know that I have been very slow in coming up to your standard of Republicanism, but I have now completely yielded to the stern logic of events, and with all my heart I will do all I can in carrying out the Republican plan of reconstruction. I will not stop to question its wisdom or propriety. It is the only plan that can restore our State speedily to the Union, and as such I cheerfully adopt it. I am fully of the opinion that the Union cannot be permanently reconstructed, and peace and prosperity restored to the country, except in the way which you so ably advocate. The permanency, prosperity and greatness of a government must be founded upon the intelligence, virtue and patriotism of the people. It was these qualities that gave our country such a high position among the nations of the earth before the rebellion. They secured the Union when it was so seriously threatened by the storms of civil war, and they alone can give the nation greatness and glory in the coming ages. Republics can be built on no other foundation, and I will always favor that line of policy which cherishes and increases these national virtues. Our people have been alienated in their affections from the government, and their patriotism must be restored before the work of reconstruction can be successfully completed. This can never be done by force, injustice or oppression; but a course of generous magnanimity will have a magic power in awakening the patriotic affections of the olden time. Our people once loved the Union with the most ardent devotion. They were drawn into the rebellion by circumstances which they could not control, and now if a generous forbearance and forgiveness is manifested towards them, they will soon give to the government of the United States their sincere and patriotic allegiance.

It is natural for our people to have a strong prejudice against the doctrine of negro equality; and it is very unreasonable to suppose that this prejudice which has been the growth of centuries can be eradicated in a few months. There is scarcely any feeling among a people that is stronger than the prejudice of caste. It is still very bitter in the enlightened North, where the colored man has been free for a half century; and can the wildest fanatic suppose that this prejudice will not exist at the South where the negro is so ignorant, and has so long been a slave? The white man has always controlled this country, and he will continue to do so. I am now willing to accord to the colored man equality before the law. I want to see his rights fully guaranteed and secured, and in all my intercourse with him I will treat him not only justly but generously. I want to see him enlightened and educated, so that he may know how rightly to exercise the privileges and discharge the duties of a good citizen. For political reasons he has been suddenly elevated to a position which he is not qualified by intelligence and experience to occupy. If in this new position he acts discreetly he may win the confidence and respect of the white man. If without intelligence and experience, he insists on filling offices for which he is not qualified, and endeavors to frame governments and establish systems of laws, he will make a sad failure and wreck the fortunes of his race. Intelligence, wisdom and experience are necessary in the formation and administration of a government. The white man can acquire these requisites only by long observation and study; and indeed it is the wildest mania to suppose that the negro can acquire these by any kind of political magic. I want to see good feeling and harmony fully established between the races. It is possible for them to live together and prosper, for their interests are intimately connected; but they must ever remain separate and distinct races. They can never commingle in social relations, but each in its appropriate sphere can advance the prosperity of the country. If the colored man is elevated to office on account of his merits and qualifications there may be no complaint, but if he is advanced on account of his color, bitter prejudices will be engendered in the heart of the white man which will disturb the harmony between the races, and eventually lead to the destruction of the less numerous race.

I am in favor of a liberal system of public education for all men, but in the practical working of the system the best interests of both races require that each race should enjoy such blessings separately.

I am opposed to confiscation! I regard it as a relic of barbarism, and I think it would not be tolerated in any enlightened and Christian land. There never has been, and never will be, any necessity for it in this country. No free government can exist that adopts such a measure, for it will lead to despotism or result in anarchy.

I am in principle opposed to test oaths, but I willingly submit to those which have been adopted by the government. I hope that they will soon be done away with. I sincerely trust there will never be any test oaths adopted by any convention or legislature of North Carolina. I am opposed to all bitterness and proscription, either in social life or legislative action. Passion and hatred have ruled long enough and accomplished a terrible result. It is now time for the sober second thought to control the destinies of the country. I want to see men of intelligence, virtue and sincere loyalty to the government of the United States, at the head of public affairs in our State. If a man is now sincerely loyal, I will not enquire into the errors of his antecedents, but in every thing regard him as a political equal. I will not say to any man who is now true and devoted to our whole country, that "I am holier than thou."

STOLEN PROPERTY—NEWS FROM THE BUMMERS.—Information has been received by a friend of ours, in this city, from a gentleman in Illinois, that there is in his county an ex-bummer of Sherman's army, who stole a fine horse named "Black Hawk," and a blooded bay mare, from the neighborhood of Raleigh, N. C., in 1865. The horse is reported to have died, but he still has the mare in his possession, and also a very fine roan mare, which was probably stolen from the neighborhood of Charleston, S. C. Any person having lost any such animals, by calling at this office will be furnished with such facts as may possibly lead to their recovery.

THE WESTERN Democrat (Charlotte) comes to us in a new suit, presenting a very handsome typography.

VIEWS OF NORTHERN MEN.

The New York Herald has a North Carolina correspondent who writes from this city. We have no idea who he is, but the internal evidence of his letters shows that he is a Northern man, sojourning in our midst. The writer exhibits an intelligent appreciation of the feelings and disposition of our people and a keen discernment of the popular sentiment. We make the following extracts from his latest letters. Speaking of the effect of the late elections at the North, he says:

"The black and tan orators, perambulating angels, self constituted negro leaders, acrobats, once rampant secessionists, now rapacious negro supremacy co operationists, and all of that set called "mean whites," look the picture of disappointed ambition, are downcast, gloomy and dispirited. Even the contumaciously impertinent and aspiring negro, notwithstanding his profound ignorance, looks as if he had just received a severe rebuke, and reminds one of a former era—the peculiar guilty and humiliating aspect of a nigger caught in the act of stealing. This allusion might very appropriately be made in a national sense, to wit:—During a violent passion, when all parties were thrown off their guard, occasioned by a family quarrel in which all the members, making a very large number, were involved, a black, though inexpert demon, came and stole the birthright of this family, which was a white one. This occasioned a great deal of anxiety and trouble, until at length one of the members boldly and unmistakably rebelled against the infringement, and there is now a prospect of the lost jewel being recovered. This is the impression at once conveyed by the abject and hang-dog look of the negro supremacy co-operationists of the venerable North State, who feel they were thieving and have been caught.

The Conservatives are now full of hope, inspired with success, and will go to work with an eagerness and alacrity that insures on the soil of North Carolina, at least, the supremacy of the Anglo Saxon race. To-day the North State rings from the peaks of the Blue Ridge to the breakers of Cape Hatteras with the joyful intelligence that this is still a white man's country, as declared by the State of Ohio in the great West."

* * * * * * *

"Northern people do not fully appreciate the feelings of the men of this section, and unless here and constantly in communication with the leaders of public sentiment, as I am, would be slow to receive the conviction that there exist a devotion to the Union and an interest in the aggrandizement of the national power, which are not even exceeded in the very heart of the loyal section by the warmest advocates of a centralized government. The utter folly of keeping the States of the South outside of the Union becomes more and more apparent to me every day, as does the absurdity of all propositions looking to a consolidation of power here in the hands of the ignorant and degraded blacks, whose sudden elevation to citizenship can have none but an evil effect upon the grand destiny of the American republic. I am thoroughly assured that when the people of the South are brought into connection with those of the North as brethren and subjects of the same law and constitution, they will prove quite as loyal and will make as faithful citizens as there are on the continent, and, from the happy effects which recent anti negro supremacy victories have produced, I am confirmed in a previous belief that nothing is wanting to a complete ripeness of a sentiment of rationalism and patriotism which cannot fail, if properly fostered, to bless the country through its results. Indeed, the renewed activity, the reawakened cheerfulness, the aroused energy, the gleeful industry with which people who, a few weeks ago, were floundering in the slough of despond, have gone to work, promise a magnificent return. There are abundant resources here which can readily be made to contribute to the general wealth, if the inhabitants can be persuaded that they will be permitted to enjoy the fruits of the toil bestowed upon their development; and every exhibition of generosity vouchsafed by the North, every straw foretelling a wind of magnanimity, every indication pointing to an adjustment of national troubles without utterly destroying the liberties of the South, and subjecting the people to degradation and dishonor, is heralded with delight, and has a corresponding effect in evoking manifestations of gratitude, and spurring the population to an exertion of the most superhuman character for the production of that which will augment the riches and increase the greatness of the country."

* * * * * * *

"The foolish attempt made a few days ago to reorganize the Democratic party of this State, of course, came to quick grief; for the people are done with party spirit, and have no desire to see such a curse revived. Henceforth the South will ally itself with no cliques or factions; but will stand side by side with the Conservative men of the country for the Union, the Constitution and the right."

While on this subject, we make the subjoined excellent extract from a letter to the Editor of the Register from a Northern man, now in this State:

"I am a Northern man myself, but when I find a man whose honesty of heart tells me what he is, or what he has been—whose past career has been actuated from principle—no matter what his antecedents were, or whether he may have agreed with me or not, in a political point of view, I can extend to him the "hand of fellowship," and can trust him. I know he is a man of truth, and that he is a good law abiding citizen. When he presented himself for registration, and filed an oath to "support the Constitution of the United States, and to encourage all others to do so," I knew he was in earnest and meant it—that he was actuated from principle.

On the contrary, I can find no language adequate to express my contempt and abhorrence for that class of extremists who have been every thing from a rank secessionist down to an extreme radicalist, who are constantly shifting from "pillar to post," whose motives are "rule or ruin," and who are always found "giving State's evidence"—eager to stoop to any low, mean device, that will assist them to accomplish their fiendish purposes."

AN EXCELLENT EXAMPLE.—We see it stated, in some of the papers of Virginia, that, during Gen. Schofield's entire administration as Military Commander of that District, he has not ordered the trial of a solitary citizen by a Military Commission. This will be read to his praise and credit, when the history of these unfortunate days is written.

It ought to be recorded to the credit of American enterprise that the news of Garibaldi's arrest was published in New York before it was known even in London. The Tribune correspondent was with Garibaldi at the time of his arrest, announced the fact in a cypher despatch to the Tribune agent in London, at 12.30 P. M., and it was published in the next morning's Tribune for the first time. That is certainly a triumph of American newspaper enterprise.

Gen. Canby's Election Order.

HEADQ'RS SECOND MILITARY DIST., }
CHARLESTON, S. C., Oct. 18, 1867. }

General Orders No. 101.

By the terms of the Act of Congress entitled "An Act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," passed March 2d, 1867, and of the Acts of March 23d, and July 19th, 1867, supplementary thereto,—it is made the duty of the Commanding General of this Military District to cause a registration to be made of the male inhabitants of the State of North Carolina, of the age of twenty-one years and upwards and qualified by the terms of said Acts to vote, and after such registration is complete, to order an election to be held at which the registered voters of said State shall vote for or against a Convention, for the purpose of establishing a Constitution and civil government for the said State, loyal to the Union, and for delegates to said Convention—and to give at least thirty days' notice of the time and place at which said election shall be held; and the said registration having been completed in the State of North Carolina, It is ordered:

First, That an election be held in the State of North Carolina, commencing on Tuesday, the 19th day of November, 1867, and ending on Wednesday, the 20th day of November, 1867, at which all registered voters of said State may vote "For a Convention," or "Against a Convention," and for delegates to constitute the Convention—in case a majority of the votes given on that question, shall be for a Convention, and in case a majority of the registered voters shall have voted on the question of holding such Convention.

Second, It shall be the duty of the Boards of Registration in North Carolina, commencing fourteen days prior to the election herein ordered, and giving reasonable public notice of the time and place thereof, to revise for a period of five days the registration lists, and upon being satisfied that any person not entitled thereto has been registered to strike the name of such person from the list; and such person shall not be entitled to vote. The Boards of Registration shall also, during the same period, add to such registers the names of all persons who at that time possess the qualifications required by said Acts—who have not already been registered.

Third, In deciding who are to be stricken from or added to the registration lists the Boards will be guided by the law of March 2d, 1867, and the laws supplementary thereto and their attention is specially directed to the Supplementary Act of July 19th, 1867,

Fourth: The said election will be held in each County or District at such places as may hereafter be designated, under the superintendence of the Boards of Registration as provided by law, and in accordance with instructions hereafter to be given to said Boards in conformity with the Acts of Congress and as far as may be with the laws of North Carolina.

Fifth, All Judges and Clerks employed in conducting said election shall, before commencing to hold the same, be sworn to the faithful performance of their duties, and shall also take and subscribe the oath of office prescribed by law for officers of the United States.

Sixth, The polls shall be opened at such voting places at eight o'clock in the forenoon and closed at four in the afternoon, of each day, and shall be kept open during these hours without intermission or adjournment.

Seventh. No member of the Board of Registration, who is a candidate for election as a delegate in the Convention shall serve as a Judge of the election in any County or District which he seeks to represent.

Eighth. The Sheriff and other peace officers of each County are required to be present during the whole time that the polls are kept open, and until the election is completed; and will be made responsible that there shall be no interference with Judges of elections, or other interruption of good order. If there should be more than one polling place in any County, the Sheriff of the County is empowered to make such assignments of his deputies, and other peace officers, to the other polling places, as may, in his judgment, best subserve the purposes of quiet and order; and he is further required to report these arrangements in advance to the Commander of the Military Post in which his County is situated.

Ninth. Violence, or threats of violence, or of discharge from employment, or other oppressive means to prevent any person from registering, or exercising his right of voting, is positively prohibited, and any such attempts will be reported by the Registrars or Judges of elections to the Post Commander, and will cause the arrest and trial of the offenders by military authority.

Tenth. All bar rooms, saloons, and other places for the sale of liquors by retail, will be closed from 6 o'clock of the evening of the 18th of November, until 6 o'clock of the morning of the 21st of November, 1867, and during this time the sale of all intoxicating liquors at or near any polling place is prohibited. The police officers of cities and towns, and the Sheriffs and other peace officers of Counties, will be held responsible for the strict enforcement of this prohibition, and will promptly arrest and hold for trial all persons who may transgress it.

Eleventh. Military interference with elections "unless it shall be necessary to repel the armed enemies of the United States, or to keep the peace at the polls," is prohibited by the Act of Congress approved February 25th, 1865, and no soldiers will be allowed to appear at any polling place, unless as citizens of the State they are qualified and are registered as voters, and then only for the purpose of voting; but the Commanders of Posts will keep their troops well in hand on the days of election, and will be prepared to act promptly if the civil authorities are unable to preserve the peace.

Twelfth. The returns required by law to be made to the Commander of the District of the results of this election, will be rendered by the Boards of Registration of the several registration precincts through the Commanders of the Military Posts in which their precincts are situated, and in accordance with the detailed instructions hereafter to be given.

Thirteenth. The number of delegates to the Convention is determined by law and is the number of members of the most numerous branch of the Legislature for the year eighteen hundred and sixty, and this number, one hundred and twenty, is apportioned to the representative Districts of the State in the ratio of registered voters as follows:

THE HOWARD STREET HOMICIDE—ARREST AND COMMITTAL OF SEVERAL PARTIES AS ACCESSORIES.—A further investigation into the facts pertaining to the shooting of young Ellermeyer by a colored military organization, supposed to be the Butler Guards, on Howard street, near Mulberry street, on Thursday night, was continued yesterday.—The police authorities instituted the most active efforts for the arrest of the suspected parties. On the return of the colored military body charged with the shooting, from the vicinity of Hicks Hospital, where they had spent the night at a ball, several arrests were made on the charge of being engaged in the shooting. Jesse Owings, wearing a lieutenant's soldier straps, Nathan Bowers, Aaron Bowers, George Hooper, Ben. Gross, Stonewall Jackson, and David Chapman, all colored, and members of a company under the command of Nathan Woolford, colored, were arrested during the early part of the morning by Sergeant Ford and a squad of Southern District policemen. Some twenty-five muskets, with flint and percussion locks, many of them loaded, a lot of cartridge, and other military equipments, were seized by the police and taken to the Southern police station. The Justice committed Jesse Owings, Nathan and Aaron Bowers, David Chapman, Stonewall Jackson, and George Hooper, colored, in default of bail, to answer the charge before the grand jury of being accessory to the killing of young Ellermeyer.—Balt. Sun.

POLITICAL PROSCRIPTION.—We are informed on reliable authority that a number of the workmen employed at the Mount Alto Iron Works, in this county, have been discharged, since the election, for voting the Democratic ticket.—Chambersburg (Penn.) Valley Spirit.

SECRETARY SEWARD AT ALBANY.—Albany, N. Y., Oct. 17.—Mr. Seward is still here.—He has no intention of resigning his seat in the Cabinet. He expresses his opinion that New York is certain to go for the Democrats next month.

CONSERVATIVES OF WAKE, RALLY!

We are authorized to state, after consultation with many Conservatives, that meetings will be called in each county precinct, to assemble on Saturday next, the 26th. inst., at the usual place of election, to suggest the names of candidates for the State Convention, and also to appoint delegates to a county Convention, to be held at the Court House in Raleigh, on Thursday, the 31st. of October, at 12 o'clock, to nominate candidates for the State Convention and to transact such other business as may be deemed necessary.

All Conservative Union men are urged to be present at the precinct meetings, and to be prompt to meet at the county Convention to nominate candidates.

Remember the election is only thirty days off. MANY CONSERVATIVES.

RALLY, CONSERVATIVES!—We are requested to announce that the Conservative Union men of Johnston County will hold a meeting in Smithfield, on Saturday the 26th, inst., (October) to nominate candidates for the Convention. Let all true Union Conservative men be present.

FRIENDS OF THE CONSTITUTION AND OF CIVIL LIBERTY—RALLY!!!—Let us meet at the Court House on Saturday night next to organize for the coming election.

The election is at hand! The enemy is organized and confident! He advocates a proscriptive policy, hostile to the interests and future prosperity of North Carolina!

Come one! Come all!! Without regard to former party connections—all who stand firmly by the Constitution of their country, and are lovers of civil liberty!

Let us be up and doing! Let us with one united effort defeat the schemes for our ruin, and save our government, and liberty for ourselves and our children!

Come one!! Come all!!!

ARREST OF A SHERIFF.—We regret to learn that, on Friday last, the Sheriff of Caswell county, Mr. Jesse C. Griffith, a most worthy man and exemplary officer of the law, was arrested by a military order, and was conveyed to Charleston, S. C., there to be tried before a military court, on charges preferred by one W. Johnson, at the instance or on the advice of one A. W. Tourgee, of Guilford.

The character of Mr. Griffith, we learn, is above suspicion, both as a man and an officer. Wm. Johnson is the person who was convicted of the crime of burglary, in Caswell Superior Court, some time since, the crime having been committed by Johnson, during the war, upon the dwelling of an aged and unoffending citizen. He not only was engaged in breaking open the house or dwelling, but, by the aid of his abettors, the old man was tied, and his house robbed of money and bacon. We learn that his character is notoriously infamous, and, after committing this and other acts, fearing arrest and lawful punishment, he escaped into the lines of the Federal army and joined it. After his return, he was arrested and convicted for his crime and sentenced to be hung. At the earnest solicitation of the citizens of the County of Caswell, and upon the representation of his counsel and others, that Johnson would leave the State, Gov. Worth pardoned him.

Being regarded as a desperate character, the Sheriff felt obliged to keep him safely, and during his confinement it was made quite rigid. It is supposed that for this, or something else, Johnson has trumped up charges against Mr. Griffith. One of the former counsel of Johnson, and who was active in procuring his pardon, says, in a letter alluding to his efforts to get Johnson pardoned: "We were influenced by feelings but too easily excited in favor of convicted criminals, and the result is, that a felon, deserving death, still lives to disturb good men and endanger the peace and safety of society, and, aided by one Tourgee and another individual by the name of O'Connell, he has succeeded in having Mr. Griffith arrested."

This same Johnson has been as bitter in his denunciation of Mr. Solicitor Settle, who prosecuted him, as of the Sheriff. This is the case, to which Gen. Sickles alluded in his Philadelphia speech, and about which we submitted some facts in explanation.

A COUNCIL of the Friends of Temperance was formed at Thomasville, on Monday night last, composed of fifteen members.

THAD. STEVENS ON THE RESULT IN PENNSYLVANIA.—The following extract from a private letter from Thaddeus Stevens is printed in a Philadelphia paper:

"Sick as I am I take this occasion to thank God for the late defeat. The Republican party acted a cowardly part, and met a coward's fate at Harrisburg."

BAPTIST STATE CONVENTION.—This body has been in session, at Goldsboro'. Among the items of interest in its proceedings, we condense the following:

From the report of the Trustees of Wake Forest College, it appears that

"The Institution has about 75 students who are boarded at the exceedingly low rates of from $10 to $12,50 a month. The tuition fees, room-rent, servant's hire, and other little extras for ten months, amount to not quite $80.

This college has adopted the "University System" of instruction, so that no chronic graduates are allowed there now. A man must stand a special examination on each department of study, and if he is not a proficient, he cannot obtain a diploma, though he remain there for ten years.

The endowment of the College which has been progressing finely, has been suspended by reason of the illness of the agent, Rev. R. B. Jones. This institution was more fortunate than many of our Colleges, since it saved more than half its endowment. The amount of old and new endowments is estimated at about $60,000, and the general prospects of the College are regarded as decidedly flattering."

The Report on State Missions sets forth the fact that the Board has twenty-four members at work in different parts of the State, whose reports of success are very encouraging.

Hillsboro' has been chosen as the place, and Wednesday before the last Sunday in November, 1868, as the time, for the next session of the Convention.

Rev. J. D. Hufham tendered his resignation as Secretary of the Convention, and, after a vote of thanks to him for seven years faithful service, the Rev. J. L. Carroll was elected to succed him.

In the course of discussion on the Foreign Missions of the Church, it was stated that the best Chinese scholar among all the Missionaries in the Celestial Kingdom is the Rev. M. T. Yates, of North Carolina.

Quite a pleasing event occurred on the third day of the session, as indicating most friendly relations between the white and colored Baptists of North Carolina. A Convention of the colored churches of the State met in Goldsboro' on that day, and a formal request was made by the colored people for a Committee, appointed by the Convention of whites, to meet with them and aid them in the organization of their body. The application was respectfully considered, and the following gentlemen were deputed to draft a constitution for them and aid them by their experience and counsel: Rev. A. Paul Repiton, Rev. W. T. Walters, and Rev. J. B. Hardwick.

Generally, an excellent spirit pervaded the deliberations of the Convention, and the session was pleasant and auspicious.

Mr. E. T. Clemmons, of High Point, N. C., has been served with the following notice from Brev't. Maj. Wm. S. Worth: "You are hereby ordered to desist running opposition coaches or wagons to the regular United States Mail contractor between High Point and Salem, N. C., until further orders."

The travel between High Point and Salem is large, and Clemmons ran an accommodation line for the transportation of passengers. By this order, people must take the mail line, or walk, to please Maj. Worth, who is a Federal officer, and support a monopoly. Such petty tyranny carries its own comment.—Statesville American.

THE WAY FOR THE FREEDMEN TO BE HAPPY.—Leave the degraded white men who are now using you to get into office.—Seek steady occupation, practice economy, and cultivate gentle dispositions and kindly relations with your fellow-men. This will bring you contentment and thrift, and with them a sensible view of your duties as citizens. Diligence and patience will bring you positions of respect and the rewards of merits. But agitation, the fostering of prejudice and malice, the seeking honors without merit, will only provoke contempt and beget disappointment and mortification.—Rich. Dispatch.

REVOLUTIONS NEVER GO BACKWARDS.—The Radicals admit that they are beaten in California for a State Judge and Superintendent of Public Schools. They have claimed that as their candidates were little known, and therefore stronger before the people than the Democratic ones, their election was certain, by the old majority of some twenty thousand. Radical rule would thus be restored in the Golden State. The facts show that revolutions never go backwards. —Nat. Intelligencer.

BROWNLOW'S MODEL STATE.—A few days ago a party of men called at the residence of Mr. Porter, three miles from Johnsonville, Tenn., and enticed him off under pretence of wishing him as a witness in a trial. After they had gone some distance, William Pierce came out of the bushes and shot him dead. Pierce was afterwards arrested, but made his escape. The remainder of the party are held for trial. The difficulty originated in matters occurring during the war.

It is now stated that Mrs. Lincoln has been in the habit for some time past of raising money by pawning various articles at a pawnbroker's shop in Chicago. It is alleged that this pawnbroker has now in pledge, for an advance of thirteen hundred dollars, three of her dresses—one of them being the dress she wore at the time of the assassination of her husband.

The Montgomery State Sentinel publishes official returns from all the counties of Alabama upon the Convention question, as follows: Whole number registered 166,289 (of whom 83,145 are a majority:) voted for Convention 87,672, against Convention 5,685.

Brownlow declines to follow the programme marked out by his admirers, who want him to go to Europe or Africa, or some warm climate, for his health, and announces himself a candidate for the United States Senate. His election is considered a certainty, though he may be mistaken when the time comes.

We understand that Mr. W. F. Gordon is very much exercised about our consistency. This reminds us of a story some one told on Gordon in the Presidential canvass of 1860. He said Gordon defined his position thus: Says he: "I prefer Breckinridge, but I think we all ought to concentrate on Bell, but I am going to vote for Douglas."—Charlottesville (Va.) Chronicle.

When Artemus Ward lay on his death-bed at Southampton, he turned to a friend by his bedside, and murmured: "What have I done that I should die so young? I never was guilty of a burglary, or ever committed the minor offence of killing a publisher or even a newspaper man."

The Board of registration of Atlanta asked a freed franchiser his name. "Bob." "Bob what?" "Bob nuffin, Bob." The absurd board insisted on two names. "Well, then, Bob Radical Ticket."

THE VIRGINIA ELECTION!

RICHMOND, Oct. 22, P. M.

The Election, to-day, passed off more quietly than was anticipated.

Two incipient riots and two other disturbances were quelled by the Military. The difficulties were caused by attempts of the Radical negroes to mob the Conservative colored men.

Troops were in reserve on Capitol Square and stationed at all the polls in the city. Cavalry patrolled the streets.

The result of the first day's voting is 567 majority for the white ticket.

The canvass is active; 2,300 whites have not yet voted.

The extreme Radicals are making efforts to have the polls kept opened three, instead of two days.

The Military, under Gen. Granger, and the City Police, will be on duty all night.

The Polls will re-open in the City to-morrow.

It is impossible yet to conjecture how the State has gone.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22—P. M.

Secretary McCulloch authorizes the statement that his registration is at the disposal of the President.

The Cabinet was in session two hours to-day. Gen. Grant was absent.

Revenue to-day $245,000.

U. S. Marshal Goodloe, for North Carolina, who is now here, reports that there are now no impediments to the execution of processes of the Federal Courts.

The election in Alexandria passed off quietly.—No definite returns have been received.

THE ITALIAN WAR.

ROME, Oct. 19.

The French Minister at Rome has informed the Pope, in the name of Napoleon, that whatever might happen, aid from France to maintain the Pope's temporal power would not fail.

The garrison of Rome has been reinforced. The town of Orto has been re-captured from the Garibaldians.

PARIS, Oct. 21, P. M.

The Moniteur of yesterday is silent in reference to preparations for intervention. An editorial says: Everything is ready at Toulon for the expedition to Rome, but the order to go will be withheld until Italy's final reply, which may be delayed some hours, on account of the ministerial crisis in Florence.

The Patrie publishes a telegram that 20,000 troops have been sent from Lyons. At Toulon another Corps de Armee was prepared to operate in another direction.

The La France says that it is certain that, in any event, France will arrive at Rome before Italy.

It is stated that the Italian Government declares itself powerless to arrest the bands of invaders, or to protect the Holy See.

There is great excitement at Rugens. The French fleet, with troops intended for Rome, has left Toulon.

READ THE FOLLOWING
HOME CERTIFICATES
From Physicians.

We hereby certify that the Rosadalis is prepared by a Physician, who is an experienced Pharmaceutist and Chemist, and that his remedy is an efficient and reliable one in SCROFULA, Syphilis, &c., it having performed some remarkable cures in this vicinity.

Edgecombe County, N. C., May 2d, 1867.

DR. J. J. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir—Please send me immediately per Express to Tarboro, two dozen more bottles of your Rosadalis. I have carefully examed its Formula, and have used it in my practice in a number of cases. I am well pleased with it. I think it, beyond doubt, the best Alterative I ever used. I have tried it in several cases of Scrofula and Scrofulous Affections, &c., with much satisfaction to myself and patients. I have also used it in Secondary and Teritary Syphilis, [one a terrible case of eight years' standing,] in which it acted with surprising and satisfactory effect—making a quick and thorough cure. I have, therefore, no hesitation in recommending it to Physicians and others, as the most reliable Alterative now known.

Respectfully yours, &c.,
A. B. NOBLES, M. D.

A Wonderful Cure of Scrofulous White Swelling.

HOME CERTIFICATE.

I hereby certify, that last September I was attacked with White Swelling of the left knee—and also with an enlargement of the glands of the neck—[one tumor reached a large size.] The swelling of the knee was enormous, and was attended with the most excruciating pains. I was so reduced that I was confined to my room over three months. My leg was so completely drawn up, that I could not bend it at all. I tried various remedies, and they failed to give me any relief. I was in this condition when I commenced taking Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis. The swelling in the knee and neck began to subside before I took all of the first bottle. By the time I took the second bottle, the swelling of the neck entirely disappeared and that of the knee nearly so. After taking three bottles I found myself completely well—able to walk as well as ever, &c.

I hereby certify that I was cured of long standing Chronic Rheumatism, by taking four bottles of Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis.

JAMES WILLIS.

Rosadalis cures Carbuncles, Boils, Pimples, &c.

Certificate from an old and much respected citizen of Greene County, now a resident of Wilson, N. C.

I hereby certify that, during the summer and fall of 1866, that I was severely afflicted with Carbuncles—having had as many as fourteen large Carbuncles, and twelve ordinary Boils. I suffered so much from them that I could not get out of the house half the time for several months. Being induced to try Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis, I was entirely cured by the use of one bottle of that truly valuable medicine.

W. A. DARDEN, SR.
Wilson, May 11th, 1867.

Consumption, in its Early Stages, can be Cured.

BALTIMORE, Md., March 4th, 1867.

Dear Dr. Lawrence—My daughter having been cured of a deeply seated disease of the lungs by your "Rosadalis," I feel it my duty to make the fact known to you for the benefit of others. She suffered nearly two years with a hard cough, which troubled her day and night; at last the emaciated form, glossy eye, night sweats, together with the cough, told too plainly that it was Consumption, beyond question, eating at her vitals. Our Physician's remedies brought no relief. She was advised to try your Rosadalis as a tonic, which she did—imagine my surprise and gratification, when I found her appetite returning. Slowly she regained her strength, her cough and night sweats gradually ceased, and she is now, after taking five bottles of your medicine, apparently as well as ever.

Yours respectfully,
MRS. E. ANN SMITH

Rosadalis cures all Skin Diseases.

Salt Rheum Cured! Remarkable Cure!!

DR. LAWRENCE, Wilson, N. C.:

My Dear Sir—For the last ten years (until recently) I suffered with an inveterate eruption of the skin—called by physicians "Salt Rheum," with which I suffered terribly; the pain and itching was almost intolerable. I tried several of the best physicians in Europe and this country—have visited several celebrated Springs—spent thousands of dollars—and failed to get any better. In December 1866, being in Charleston S. C., I was told by a gentleman at the hotel, that he had been cured of a bad tetter by a medicine called "Rosadalis." I resolved to try it, without any hope though of its doing me any good. I procured a bottle of Messrs. King & Cassidey, and commenced taking it. Finding, to my surprise, that I was improving, I bought four other bottles; but before commencing on the last two, I found I was completely well—the disease having entirely disappeared.

Enclosed find "One Hundred Dollars," which please accept as a token of my gratitude. Why do you not make your invaluable Rosadalis widely known?

Your sincere friend,
W. T. SELTZER.

Major John W. Dunham, one of the editors of the Wilson "North Carolinian," says in the issue of the 20th April, 1867: "I believe from personal experience, that the Rosadalis is the finest tonic ever prepared."

Also, the largest and most varied stock of which will be sold at prices to suit my customers.

Boots and Shoes, Boots and Shoes.

The largest and best stock I ever brought to the City, consisting, in part, of J. Miles & Sons' make, and others of equally high standing.
Ladies' Pegged Balmorals, from $1 to $2.
Ladies Sewed Balmorals, from $1,50 to $3,50.
CREECH'S is the place to come to buy your Boots and Shoes.

Hats, Hats, Hats,

From 75 cts. to $4,00. Don't stop until you come to CREECH'S to buy your Hats. In fact, I think I can meet the expectations of all my customers and the public generally, both as to price and quality of ALL Goods.

Now a few words to my customers and friends: You see a great many different styles of advertisements. Some say they are in "luck again;" some say they have "hit the nail on the head;" some "selling out at cost;" some to "make room for a new stock;" some one thing and some another. But allow me to say, whether I am in luck, or whether I hit the nail on the head, or whether I missed the nail entirely, or failed to advertise "selling out at cost," I have sold out my old stock, (while they are still hammering away over their old stock,) and have been North and bought a new stock. My goods are now in Store, and opened for inspection.

COME AND LOOK AT THEM.

I told my customers, six months ago, that I would sell goods as cheap as Yankee, Jew or Gentile, and I think I have made my word good.

I told the people to come to Creech's to buy their goods, that I would serve them right. Hundreds have come, and they are still coming from this and adjoining Counties. And I beg to take the privilege to say, I think they have shown their good judgment.

Don't forget to come to A. CREECH'S,
Sept. 12—32-tf Fayetteville Street.

THE KING OF THE CRADLE.

BY J. A. S.

Draw back the cradle curtains, Kate,
Whilst watch and ward you're keeping :
Let's see the monarch lie in state,
And view him whilst he's sleeping.
He smiles and clasps his tiny hand,
As sunbeams in come streaming ;
A world of baby-fairy land
He visits while he's dreaming.

Monarch of pearly powder-puff
Asleep in nest so cosy,
Shielded from breath of breezes rough
By curtains warm and rosy ;
He slumbers soundly in his cell,
As weak as one decrepid,
Though King of Coral, Lord of Bel',
And Knight of Bath that's tepid!

Ah, lucky tyrant! happy lot!
Fair watchers without number
To sweetly sing beside his cot,
And hush him off to slumber ;
White hands in wait to smooth so neat
His pillow when its rumpled,
On couch of rose-leaves fresh and sweet,
Not one of which is crumpled!

Will yonder dainty dimpled hand—
Size, nothing and a quarter—
E'er clasp a sabre, lead a band
To glory and to slaughter?
And may I ask will those blue eyes—
In baby patois "peepers"—
E'er in the House of Commons rise,
And strive to catch the Speaker's?

Will that fair brow o'er Hansard frown,
Confused by lore statistic?
Or will those lips e'er stir the town
From pulpit ritualistic?
Impossible, and yet mayhap—
Though strange, quite true it may be—
Perhaps Nero once was fed on pap,
And Beales was once a baby.

Though rosy, dimpled, plump, and round,
Though fragile, soft, and tender,
Sometimes, alas, it may be found
The thread of life is slender!
A little shoe, a bitten glove—
Affection never waning—
The shattered idol of our love
Is all that is remaining!

Then does one chance, in fancy, hear
Small feet in childish patter,
Tread soft as they a grave draw near,
And voices hush their chatter ;
'Tis small and new, they pause in fear,
Beneath the gray church tower,
To consecrate it by a tear
And deck it with a flower.

Then take your babe, Kate, kiss him so,
Fast to your bosom press him!
Of mother's love what does he know?
Though closely you caress him.
Ah! what a man will be that boy,
What mind and education!
If he fulfils the hope and joy
Of mother's aspiration.

BARNUM'S AFRICAN GORILLA.

THE GRAND HUMBUG EXPOSED—A LIVE HOOSIER "PLAYING GORILLA," &C.

A correspondent of the Louisville Courier, writing from Henryville, Indiana, October 12th., gives the following relative to Barnum's latest humbug, the gorilla:

A resident of this place, a gentleman of undoubted veracity, has just returned from New York city, where he had been on business, and, on my promising secrecy, revealed the circumstances below narrated, which my repeated solicitations have finally induced him to allow me to publish. He was in New York when the gorilla arrived, and the account in the papers excited his curiosity. The day before leaving Gotham he visited the wonder. It happened at the time of his visit (about 5 o'clock, P. M.) that there was no one in the vicinity of the gorilla save the keeper, Prof. Davidson.—The terrible growls and snarls of the animal, which almost intimidated him as he approached the cage in which it was confined, ceased instantly when he stopped before it, and, to his great astonishment, the gorilla called him by name, and, seeming to forget its assumed character, evinced a desire to shake hands!

Prof. Davidson seemed all "struck in a heap" at this, and endeavored to take my friend away, but the latter, being of an inquiring mind, refused to go, and addressing the gorilla, (who appeared as any human would, who had made a blunder,) asked: "Well, old fellow, how do you happen to know me?" The gorilla approached him as near as the bars of the cage would permit, and said, in a low tone: "I don't wonder, Charley, that you don't recognize me, and, considering the circumstances, I should not have spoken. I am your old friend, F—— C—— of T——, and was so overjoyed on seeing you that I could not resist the impulse to speak. I beg you not to mention this, and come around to-night at 10 o'clock, and I will see you." As some other persons were now seen approaching, Prof. Davidson pulled Mr. Scholl away, imploring him to keep the secret, and making an appointment to meet him at 9 o'clock. Mr. S. left with the frightful roars and growls of his friend, alias the gorilla, ringing in his ears.

Punctual to the hour of nine, Mr. S. went to the place of meeting, where he found Prof. Davidson, who conducted him through a back passage to the Museum, where he found and grasped by the hand his friend F—— C——, whom he had not seen for years, and from whom he learned the following particulars:

Mr. C——, who is a handsome young gentleman, about 28 years of age, of splendid physique, though small in stature, was taken with the humbug mania on hearing Barnum lecture last year, and in a lucky moment conceived the gorilla scheme, with which he acquainted the "prince of humbugs," who immediately approved on seeing him get into a well preserved bear skin and imitate the actions of that animal.—Plans were arranged and C—— went to Africa in company with Prof. Davidson, and after landing, they with considerable trouble and expense procured the skin of a gorilla of the right size. This was nicely tanned with the hair on, and arranged to suit, and, when arrayed in this novel attire, C—— was a perfect gorilla. With his imitations of the actions and voice of the animal, together with the fear he inspired, which prevented strangers approaching too near him, he defied detection. Although possessing more than ordinary strength, Mr. C—— has nothing like that imputed to the gorilla, and the accounts we read of it are merely gotten up for sensation. Mr. S. learned much else of interest, but space forbids my writing more. Before leaving Mr. S. was introduced to Barnum, who added his entreaties to those of Davidson and C——, to keep secret, at least, until he arrived home.

ATLANTIC & N. C. RAILROAD AND NORTH CAROLINA GRAND TRUNK RAILROAD,

From Charlotte and all Points on the N. Carolina and its Connecting Railroads, to the Seaboard at Newbern and Morehead City.

THE STATE OWNS THREE-FOURTHS OF the North Carolina Railroad and three-fourths of the ATLANTIC & N. C. RAILROAD. This is the

STATE LINE,

To its OWN SEAPORTS and on its OWN ROADS. All other lines are in opposition.

A six per cent dividend on this line will save the people from taxation $295,000 per annum.

Under a resolution of the Stockholders of the N. C. Railroad, all Freights are to go via Goldsboro', unless otherwise specially directed by shippers.

When at Goldsboro', you are only sixty miles from the shipping point, instead of one hundred and sixty via Weldon, and eighty via Wilmington. Our Steamers are equal to any other line, both for Freight and Travel. Time as short as by any other, and as cheap.

THIS is the Line

To ENCOURAGE. You get dispatch, safety, but one handling, and less Railroad transportation than by any other line.

Three-fourths of the PROFITS made on this line go directly into the STATE TREASURY, and if encouraged, you will soon be relieved from heavy taxation at least two hundred and ninety-five thousand dollars.

The Railroads composing the N. C. GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY LINE have recently agreed to unite in a

GREAT THROUGH LINE

Route to all the Northern Markets, on equal terms and charges, via our own ports to and from the North.

Cars run through to all points without breaking bulk.

A Cheap Cotton Press.

FARMERS, BEFORE YOU BUY A PRESS OR build a Screw, enquire into the merits of the

GODWIN COTTON PRESS.

Hear what the following reliable gentlemen say:

I have seen Mr. J. H. Godwin's Cotton Press work at Mr P. E. Smith's plantation, and it does all that he says it does in his advertisement, and MORE. I think it superior to any other mode of packing Cotton, and saves both time and labor.
W. R. SMITH.

I have used the above mentioned Press, and consider it the best I ever saw for packing Cotton.
THOS. J. VAUGHAN.

I have packed about 160 bales of Cotton with Mr. J. H. Godwin's Cotton Press, and take pleasure in recommending it to the farmers as a great labor-saving machine. It does not cost more than half as much as a Screw, and is worth twice as much.

It is so convenient, and takes fewer hands to do as much work as a Screw. I would pay the price of a Press, rather than allow a man to put up a screw on my place for nothing.
D. EDMONDSON.

I have used the above mentioned Cotton Press, and it does better than a Screw. Takes less hands, does not waste Cotton, and is much cheaper.
J. H. CURRY.
Sup't W. H. Smith's Plantation.

I have packed about 70 bales with Godwin's Cotton Press, and am certain it is the best, cheapest, most compact and durable Press in existence, costing only half, at first, and lasting twice as long as a Screw.
PETER E. SMITH.

I have never seen the Cotton Press of Mr. Jno. H. Godwin at work, but have no doubt, from the certificates of the gentlemen above, that it performs all they say of it. I know them to be gentlemen of character and veracity, and that their statements are entitled to credit
RICHARD H. SMITH.

The last name is one of our most honorable and respectable citizens, well known as a former member of the Legislature. I offer this PRESS as combining more advantages for packing than any now in use; it is adapted to large or small farms, and is so simple and cheap, that any good mechanic can build it. It is well adapted to

WATER-POWER.

It is 10 or 11 feet wide, 3 feet and 3 inches thick; top of frame above ground, 16 feet; highest point of Lever, 18 or 19 feet. The platform on which the bale is turned out, is 10 feet above ground.

Length of box, 10 feet in the clear.

Length of bale 5 feet, by 2 feet 4 inches Weight 500 or 600 lbs. It is put up flat against the Lint Room, thereby preventing the scattering of the Cotton and need of baskets.

The Press is chiefly built of scantlings.

The Inventor has spared no pains in his experiments to make it practicable, convenient and cheap. I charge

$25 for a Single Right.

The total cost, including cover and everything, is about $150. Much of that, farmers are not in the habit of including as cost.

I think I can sell County rights at about $10 by the hundred.

THE FIRE EXTINGUISHER.

This Portable, Self-Acting Fire Engine

IS OFFERED TO THE Public as a ready, certain and speedy means of preventing LARGE CONFLAGRATIONS.

Until the invention of the

Portable, Self-Acting Fire Engine,

Fires have been met by means too slow, too late and too cumbrous. But few persons in this country have the advantage of large hand or Steam Fire Engines, and those few often suffer a total loss of their property by reason of the great length of time consumed in sending for and getting them into working order.

BUT NOT SO WITH THE FIRE EXTINGUISHER,

which, being kept charged and standing in your House, Store or Factory, is always Ready for Instant Service.

The fire can be extinguished and your property saved without loss or damage, or even an alarm of Fire.

The first few minutes of conflagration decide the fate of the property; "a little fire is quickly put out, which, being suffered, rivers cannot quench."

THE EXTINGUISHER, being very simple in its operation, and entirely self-propelling, requires no previous skill or practice to operate it, and being so light, portable and self-acting, is capable of being used in any place, by any person, male or female.

It puts out all fires, arising from whatever cause.

You are saved from the immense water damage caused by large Engines.

You can effect insurance on your property

At Lower Rates,

if protected by the Extinguisher.

The Extinguisher is no humbug, as thousands of good men in Europe and America will testify.

I have already put these little Engines into some of our best Factories and largest Schools in N. C.

No House, Store, Factory, or Corporation is safe without them.

The price is as nothing, compared with the protection they afford.

SUPPLEMENT TO THE STEVENS-SHERMAN-SHELLABARGER BILL.

AN ACT supplemental to an act entitled an act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, passed March 2, 1867, and to facilitate restoration.

Be it enacted, &c., That before the first day of September, 1867, the commanding general in each district defined by the act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, approved March 2, 1867, shall cause a registration to be made of the male citizens of the United States, twenty-one years of age, and upwards, resident in each county or parish in the State or States included in his district, which registration will include only those persons who are qualified to vote for delegates by the act aforesaid, and who shall have taken and subscribed the following oath or affirmation:

"I, ——, do solemnly swear, or affirm, in the presence of Almighty God, that I am a citizen of the State of ——; that I have resided in said State for —— months next proceeding this day, and now reside in the county of ——, or the parish of ——, in said State, as the case may be; that I am 21 years old; that I have not been disfranchised for participation in any rebellion or civil war against the United States, nor for felony committed against the laws of any State or of the United States; that I have never been a member of any State Legislature, or held any executive or judicial office in any State, and afterwards engaged in insurrection and rebellion against the United States, and given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof: that I have never taken an oath as a member of Congress of the United States, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, and afterwards engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; that I will faithfully support the Constitution and obey the laws of the United States, and will, to the best of my ability, encourage others so to do. So help me God." Which oath or affirmation may be administered by any registering officer.

Sec. 2. That after the completion of the registration hereby provided for in any State at such time and place therein as the commanding general shall appoint and direct, of which at least thirty day's public notice shall be given, an election shall be held of delegates to a convention for the purpose of establishing a constitution and civil government for such State - loyal to the Union; said convention in each State, except Virginia, to consist of the same number of members as the most numerous branch of the State Legislature of such State in the year 1860, to be apportioned among the several districts, counties, or parishes of such State by the commanding general, giving to each, representation in the ratio of voters registered as aforesaid as nearly as may be. The convention in Virginia shall consist of the same number of members as represented the territory now constituting Virginia in the most numerous branch of the Legislature of said State in the year 1860, to be apportioned as aforesaid.

Sec. 3. That at such election the registered voters of each State shall vote for or against a convention to form a constitution therefor under this act. Those voting in favor of such a convention shall have written or printed on the ballots by which they vote for delegates, as aforesaid, the words "for a convention;" and those voting against such a convention shall have written or printed on such ballots the words "against a convention." The persons appointed to superintend said election, and to make return of the votes given thereat, as herein provided, shall count and make return of the votes given for and against a convention; and the commanding general, to whom the same shall have been returned, shall ascertain and declare the total vote in each State for and against a convention. If a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a convention, then a convention shall be held, as hereinafter provided; but if a majority of said votes shall be against a convention, then no convention shall be held under this act: Provided, That such convention shall not be held unless a majority of all such registered voters shall have voted on the question of holding such convention.

Sec. 4. That the commanding general of each district shall appoint such loyal officers or persons as may be necessary, not exceeding three in each election district, in any State, to make and complete the registration, superintend the election, and make return to him of the votes, lists of voters and of the persons elected as delegates by a plurality of the votes cast at said election; and upon receiving said returns he shall open the same, ascertain the persons elected as delegates according to the returns of the officers who conducted said election, and make proclamation thereof; and if a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a convention, the commanding general, within sixty days from the date of election, shall notify the delegates to assemble in convention at a time and place to be mentioned in the notification, and said convention, when organized, shall proceed to frame a Constitution and civil government according to the provisions of this act, and the act to which it is supplementary; and when the same shall have been so framed, said Constitution shall be submitted by the convention for ratification to the persons registered under the provisions of this act, at an election to be conducted by the officers or persons appointed by the commanding general as hereinbefore provided, and to be held after the expiration of thirty days from the date of notice thereof to be given by said convention, and the returns thereof shall be made to the commanding general of the district.

Sec. 5 That if, according to said returns, the constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the votes of the registered electors qualified as herein specified, cast at said election, at least one-half of all the registered voters voting upon the question of such ratification, the president of the convention shall transmit a copy of the same, duly certified, to the President of the United States, who shall forthwith transmit the same to Congress, if then in session, and if not in session, then immediately upon its next assembling; and if it shall moreover appear to Congress that the election was one at which all the registered and qualified electors in the State had an opportunity to vote freely and without restraint, fear or the influence of fraud, and if Congress shall be satisfied that such constitution meets the approval of a majority of the qualified electors in the State, and if the said constitution shall be declared by Congress to be in conformity with the provisions of the act to which this is supplementary, and the other provisions of said act shall have been complied with, and the said constitution shall be approved by Congress, the State shall be declared entitled to representation, and Senators and Representatives shall be admitted therefrom as herein provided.

Sec. 6. That all elections in the States mentioned in the said "Act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," shall, during the operation of said act, be by ballot; and all officers making the said registration of voters and conducting said elections shall, before entering upon the discharge of their duties, subscribe an oath faithfully to perform the duties of their said office, and the oath prescribed by the act approved July 2, 1862, entitled "An act to prescribe an oath of office:" Provided, That if any person shall knowingly and falsely take and subscribe any oath in this act prescribed, such person so offending, and being thereof duly convicted, shall be subject to the pains, penalties and disabilities which by law are provided for the punishment of the crime of wilful and corrupt perjury.

Sec. 7. That all expenses incurred by the several commanding generals, or by virtue of any orders issued or appointments made by them under or by virtue of this act, shall be paid out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

Sec. 8. That the convention for each State shall prescribe the fees, salary, and compensation to be paid to all delegates and other officers and agents herein authorized or necessary to carry into effect the purposes of this act, not herein otherwise provided for, and shall provide for the levy and collection of such taxes on the property in such State as may be necessary to pay the same.

Sec. 9. That the word "article" in the sixth section of the act to which this is supplementary shall be construed to mean "section."

ST. CLEMENT'S HALL.

A FIRST CLASS SCHOOL FOR BOYS,

ELLICOTTS MILLS, MD.,

(NEAR BALTIMORE.)

THIS SCHOOL WAS ESTABLISHED FOR the purpose of enabling SOUTHERN BOYS, at a comparatively moderate cost, to enjoy all the advantages that are afforded in the best and most expensive Northern Schools.

It has been, already, eminently successful. The Hall is a large and beautiful edifice. The Household is under the immediate charge of the Rector and his wife. The pupils are all received as members of the family; strict attention is given to their health, personal habits and to the cultivation of courteous manners, while every care is taken to unite the comforts of a home, with the strict discipline of a School. In these respects, this Institution claims to have no superior in the country.

The Teachers are all gentlemen of fine classical attainments, and the instruction is of the most thorough kind.

Circulars, containing full particulars, with references and list of pupils, will be sent to any address.

REV. J. AVERY SHEPHERD, A. M., Rector.
